

COLLEGE QUINT LOSES ANOTHER

Virginia Christian College Too Much for Team Representing Richmond College.

Lynchburg, Va., February 14.—Richmond College proved to be no match here this afternoon for Virginia Christian College, the home quint winning by the score of 53 to 20. The game was vigorous and speedy from start to finish, being well played throughout. The Richmond team did better passing than the Christians, but could not overcome the size pitted against them. Both quints had bad luck with their shoeshooting.

The Christians led the first half with the score of 31 to 10, but in the beginning of the last period the Baptists rolled up ten points before the Christians got a basket. Then by fast work, the Christians overcame the visitors in the half, making it 22 to 20 for the last half.

Fans who know basketball and who saw the Richmonders perform here twice this week generally agree that Coach Dobson has done wonders with a one year quint. The passing of the team is the best seen here by a visiting team this season.

Today's score, while large, was not a walk-over for the Christians, for they had to work for everything they got, and much of what they got came by reason of the height of Shelburne and Musgrove. The game was not roughly played, despite the fact that there were seventeen fouls. The line-up:

Christian College—Musgrove, right forward; Shelburne, left forward; Straley, left guard; Montgomery, right guard; Leubert, right forward; Brock, left forward; Heubl, center; Satterfield, right guard; Cosby, left guard.

Summary: Field goals—Musgrove, 11; Straley, 2; Shelburne, 11; Straley, Leubert, 2; Brock, 4; Heubl, 3; Satterfield and Cosby, 2. Goals from fouls—Shelburne, Leubert, 6. Time, twenty-minute halves. Referee, Salassa; umpire, Jamerson, both of Lynchburg.

Lehigh Wrestlers Fall Before Onslaught of Uncle Sam's Coast Defenders.

Annapolis, Md., February 14.—The Naval Academy cleaned things up on the mat today with Lehigh, taking all seven of the wrestling bouts, four by clean falls and three by decisions to superior form and aggressiveness. Thomas, in the 135-pound class, and Sawtelle, in the 158-pound class, made the best defenses of the Lehigh grapplers.

MURPHY IS AFTER BOSTON PLAYERS

Will Not Give Up Evers to Braves Until He Gets Them.

Chicago, February 14.—Murphy announced again today that he would put up a fight for Sweeney and Perdue, whom he considers should come to the Cubs as a result of the Evers deal. He declared that if Sweeney and Perdue did not play with the Cubs during 1914, Johnny Evers would not play with Boston.

"I have not yet released Evers to Boston, and will not do so until the Boston players are released to my club," said Murphy.

CADETS BESTED BY CAROLINIANS

Lynchburg, Va., February 14.—In a hard-fought basketball game here tonight Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina bested Virginia Military Institute by the score of 29 to 20.

The game commenced in the first half for ten minutes, after which the Carolinians took the lead, and were never overhauled. The Virginians owe their defeat to the lack of team work, especially in not having a forward to receive passes for baskets, and rather poor guarding in the first half. The Carolinians did superior goal shooting.

Van Brocklin, for the Aggies, was the star of the game. The line-up: Virginia Military—S. Lowry, right forward; Pettroff, left forward; Patton, center; Clarkson, right guard; Schwab, left guard. North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical—Sumner, right forward; Dowd, left forward; Fortner, center; Van Brocklin, right guard; Mason, left guard.

Summary: Substitutions—Cochran for Schwab. Goals from field—Lowry, 2; Pettroff, 2; Patton, 2; Schwab, 1; Sumner, 1; Dowd, 3; Fortner, 4; Van Brocklin, 1; Mason, 2. Goals from fouls—Clarkson, 4; Fortner, 3. Fouls committed—Virginia, 5; Agricultural and Mechanical, 12. Time, 20 minute halves. Referee, Churchman, of Virginia. Umpire, Barker, of Washington and Lee.

ROUGH GAME GOES TO WAKE FOREST

Wake Forest, N. C., February 14.—In a rough game ever played upon the court here, Wake Forest to-night defeated Carolina in basketball by the score of 29 to 20.

The locals began by showing their usual good work, and clearly outclassed the visitors. Towards the end of the first half the game developed into close kinship to a rough and tumble fight, and did not recover its identity as a real basketball contest. Hall played a brilliant game, right guard, and eight respectively. The guarding of both teams was good. The work of Referee Kellenburger was generally unsatisfactory, the roughness of both teams being attributed to his looseness.

Summary: Goals from field—Hall, 6; Long, 3; Holding, 3; Dowd, 4; Tyler, 3; Johnson, Billings, Davis, 2; Tennant, 1. Goals from fouls—Long, 3; Holding, 3. Referee, Kellenburger, of Greensboro.

APPOINTMENT NOT WELL RECEIVED

Great Britain Shocked When American Is Chosen for Big Railroad Position.

London, February 15.—The appointment of Henry W. Thornton, American general superintendent of the Long Island Railway, as general manager of the Great Eastern Railway Company, continues to be the subject of comment by newspapers and those interested in railway affairs.

"Great Britain has not in many years had such a shock to her pride as that experienced by the announcement of the appointment of Mr. Thornton," says the Sunday Observer, prefacing a couple of columns of opinions, which are to the effect that something must be wrong with the system of promotion in British railways.

Among other Englishmen who deprecate the appointment of an American to such a high position, and who assert that there is a lack of ability in the ranks of the British railway men, are:

George J. Wardle, M. P., editor of the Railway Review; William Whitelaw, chairman of the North British Railway Company; Sir Charles Bine Ben-shaw, chairman of the Caledonia Railway.

The Westminster Gazette also severely arraigns Lord Clan Hamilton for making the appointment.

Mr. Thornton to-day left for New York to wind up his affairs there. The annoyance and surprise expressed by the British press at my appointment is perhaps natural," he said, "but I think is unjustified.

"My appointment means the introduction of American methods only when they are consistent with the practice of English Railways. I intend, however, to get into close personal touch with all the members of the staff of the Great Eastern Railway in the North, reveal the reason for the separation of Stefansson and certain other members of the party from the exploring vessel 'Karluk.' The letters also set at rest the rumors of friction in the party, and tell of the explorer's plans now that he has been prevented from reaching the unknown continent supposed to lie north of Alaska. TIDINGS RECEIVED FROM EXPLORERS Reveal Reason for Separation of Stefansson and Others from the Karluk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, February 14.—Letters received to-day from Vilhjalmur Stefansson, discover of the tribe of blond Eskimos, and Bert McConnell, meteorologist of Stefansson's latest expedition to the Arctic, reveal the reason for the separation of Stefansson and certain other members of the party from the exploring vessel "Karluk." The letters also set at rest the rumors of friction in the party, and tell of the explorer's plans now that he has been prevented from reaching the unknown continent supposed to lie north of Alaska. Fear is expressed for the safety of Captain Robert Bartlett and those who remained on board the Karluk.

Letter from McConnell. McConnell's letter, which was dated October 19, was posted at Point Barrow, Alaska, November 1. It reads as follows:

"Mr. Stefansson, Jenness, Wilkins and myself, with two Eskimos, went ashore at the mouth of the Colville to hunt caribou. We got ashore after being marooned on one of the Jones Islands for several days, but in the meantime, a northeaster blew up and loosened the ice that held us all summer. We had provisions for ten days, and managed to kill a seal or two, some ducks, loons, etc., so we lived very well. Forgetting to say that we started from the ship on the 20th of September, with two dog teams of six dogs each, and arrived on the mainland at Beachy Point on September 23.

"Mr. Stefansson went out for caribou two or three times, once with a dog team and two Eskimos, but did not get any. He saw one at dusk one day but was about ten miles from camp at the time. I did not go after him. We were stormbound for one day, and spent the time in drying out our sleeping bags and the skins that are put under them.

"Anyway, Stefansson decided to head for Point Barrow, as we had enough dog food to last four days. We never camped at the time. I thought it was a ship, and she seemed to be heading for shore, but we finally lost sight of her.

"On the second of October we headed for Point Barrow, as we had enough dog food to last four days. We never camped at the time. I thought it was a ship, and she seemed to be heading for shore, but we finally lost sight of her.

Tangent by an old Eskimo who had a glass and who claimed he was near enough to see her ropes. She was drifting west, and no smoke was issuing from her funnel or galley. There is no reason for doubting the old man's word, as he knows the Karluk and has no reason for lying.

"A few days later a schooner without either yards or funnel was seen off Point Barrow, but some who saw her say she had both and was the old Karluk.

Boat Is Adrift. "At any rate, the boat is adrift somewhere, and nothing remains to be done except join the Alaska and Mary Sachs. They are at Collinson's Point, hauled out for the winter and in good shape.

"I am not of the pessimistic order, but if I ever see the Karluk again I shall be very much surprised. I do not fear so much for the people on the Karluk, as they have two Eskimos, one of them an exceptionally good hunter, twenty-six dogs, six or eight sledges, and Captain Bartlett. Mr. Murray has a good head. Dr. McKay can be counted upon, and if it comes to a showdown, they ought to get out of their predicament in good shape.

"Our personal losses, compared with the losses of Mr. Stefansson and the expedition, are nothing. There is nothing we can do except to join the southern party.

(Signed, "BERT MCCONNELL.") Stefansson started from Victoria, B. C., on June 17, his expedition being financed by the Canadian government. It was his object to be the first explorer to sail far out into the region of the Arctic Ocean, and there discover the mythical "Crocker Land."

A secondary expedition, under Dr. R. M. Anderson, accompanied the Karluk, utilizing two smaller vessels, the Alaska and the Mary Sachs. The object of this was to explore the coast of the Arctic and probably again visit the blonde Eskimos.

SLEEP DISTURBING BLADDER WEAKNESS BACKACHE-RHEUMATISM, QUICKLY VANISH

Even Most Chronic Sufferers Find Relief After A Few Doses Are Taken.

Backache, urinary disorders and rheumatism are caused from weak, inactive kidneys, which fail to filter out the impurities and keep the blood pure, and the only way on earth to permanently and positively cure such troubles is to remove the cause.

The new discovery, Croxone, cures such conditions because it reaches the very roots of the disease. It soaks right into the stopped up, inactive kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering cells and glands; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid substances that lodge in the joints and muscles to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism; it neutralizes the urine so it no longer irritates the tender membranes of the bladder, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped up, ineffective kidneys so they filter and sift all the poisons from the blood and drive it out of the system.

So sure, so positive, so quick and lasting are the results obtained from the use of Croxone that three doses a day for a few days are often all that is required to cure the worst case of backache, regulate the most annoying bladder disorders, and overcome the numerous other similar conditions.

It is the most wonderful preparation ever made for the purpose. It is entirely different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth to compare with it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You can obtain an original package of Croxone at a trifling cost from any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give desired results, regardless of how old you are, how long you have suffered, or what else has failed to cure you.—Advertisement.
